Disciplinary Counsel's Motion to Permit Testimony "Out of Order"

Disciplinary Counsel spoke with Dr. Elliott Kaufman, Pamela Binette's psychiatrist, on November 8. He told me that Pamela Binette is competent to testify. He also said that it would be helpful to Ms. Binette if her parents were there to support her when she testifies.

Pamela Binette will testify at 2 p.m. on Thursday, November 16, as required under Respondent's subpoena. Disciplinary Counsel has currently scheduled Mr. and Mrs. Binette to testify on Tuesday, November 14th following the testimony of Pamela Binette's psychiatrist, Dr. Elliott Kaufman. I request permission to call Mr. and Mrs. Binette to testify on the morning of November 16 during the time currently allotted for Respondent's case. This will save Mr. and Mrs. Binette from losing a second day of work.

My best estimate now is that the total direct testimony of both parents will take between 30 and 45 minutes.

Dated at Burlington, Vermont on November 9, 2017.

Disciplinary Counsel
