PRB File Nos. 2021-018

Disciplinary Counsel's Prehearing Witness List

In accordance with the scheduling order, paragraph 9, I provide the following information to the panel regarding witnesses who may be called (set out below in alphabetical order), brief summary of anticipated testimony, and estimated time required for direct examination.

1. Patricia ("Penny") Benelli. Ms. Benelli is an attorney whose office is in Chester. She represented Husband in a divorce matter. She is expected to testify regarding her communications and negotiations with Respondent, who represented Wife in the same divorce matter, between June and August 2020. Anticipated time for direct: 30 minutes.
2. Melvin Fink. Mr. Fink is the Respondent. He is expected to testify regarding his own perspective regarding his communications with Benelli and Husband. Anticipated time for direct: 30 minutes.
3. Nathan Marshall. Mr. Marshall is Benelli's client (Husband). He is expected to testify to his communications with Respondent, including their conversation on August 17, 2020, which is the subject of the conduct charged. Anticipated time for direct: 15 minutes.
