Board Activity Report

Pursuant to A.O. 9, Rule 1.A., the Board is appointed by the Supreme Court and consists of seven members: three members of the bar of this state, three public members and one judge or retired judge. The Board is responsible for overseeing the program and implementing, coordinating and periodically reviewing its policies and goals.

Policies

On March 24, 2020, the Supreme Court amended Emergency Order A.O. 49, suspending in-person committee meetings and authorizing the submission documents by parties to the PRB through email. Evidentiary hearings were also suspended. A link to the amendment was posted on the Professional responsibility Board page of the Judiciary website.

Annual Training Meeting

In accordance with A.O. 49 paragraph 15(c), The Professional Responsibility Program did not hold its annual meeting due to the COVID-19 emergency.

Supervision of the Program’s Case Docket & Review of Case Management Procedures

The Program Administrator provided the Board with a monthly case flow statistical report. In addition, Disciplinary Counsel and Bar Counsel each provided the Board, on a quarterly basis, with a detailed summary of their caseloads. The Board reviewed the reports.

Trust Accounts

The Vermont Professional Responsibility Board has published a guide entitled "Managing Client Trust Accounts, Rules, Regulations and Tips" to assist both new and experienced lawyers in dealing with trust accounting questions and an Audit Questionnaire intended to serve as a tool to which Vermont attorneys can turn for self-assessment of the procedures by which their trust accounting systems are managed. Both documents are available on the Judiciary website.

Board Membership Update

In FY 2020 Professional Responsibility Board member Justice Brian Burgess resigned from his position, and was replaced by retired Judge David Howard.

Appointment of Hearing Panels & Hearing Panel Counsel

During FY20, Mark DiStefano served as Hearing Panel Counsel. In general, he attends hearings and phone conferences and writes a first draft of any opinion or order for the panel. He is also available to provide research, pre-hearing memos or other legal assistance to the Hearing Panels.

PRB Hearing Panels issued seven decisions in FY20. The decisions can be viewed here. Several panels had matters under consideration as the fiscal year ended. The public hearing calendar is here.
As FY20 ended, the following individuals served as members of Hearing Panels:

Hearing Panel No. 1
Anthony Iarrapino, Esq.
Emily Tredeau, Esq.
Mr. Scott Hess

Hearing Panel No. 2

Activity Reports

The following Reports of Bar Counsel and Disciplinary Counsel cover activities from July 1, 2019 through June 30, 2020. Throughout the report, that time period will be referred to as “FY20.”

Bar Counsel

INTRODUCTION

Bar Counsel’s goal is proactive regulation: working with attorneys to address risk and avoid problems. To that end, bar counsel responds to ethics inquiries, teaches continuing legal education seminar, and engages in other forms of outreach. Bar Counsel’s activities are designed to assist lawyers to develop and maintain the tools necessary to provide competent representation in a way that meets the high standards of professionalism and civility expected of attorneys admitted to the bar of the Vermont Supreme Court. Bar Counsel also screens disciplinary complaints.

ETHICS INQUIRIES

Rule 9 of Administrative Order 9 states:

“Inquiries from attorneys who have ethical issues or practice questions shall be referred to bar counsel, who may provide referrals, educational materials, and preventive advice and information to assist attorneys to achieve and maintain high standards of professional responsibility.”

Bar Counsel received 1,272 inquiries in FY 2020.

SCREENING DISCIPLINARY COMPLAINTS

A goal of proactive regulation is to reduce the number of complaints filed against lawyers. For the last several years, the Professional Responsibility Program has done exactly that.

https://www.vermontjudiciary.org/about-vermont-judiciary/boards-and-committees/professional-responsibility
The number of complaints received in FY 2020 represents an all-time low. Since the PRP restructured in 2012 to focus on proactive regulation, complaints have declined at a significant and steady pace ever since.

By rule, bar counsel screens all complaints. The screening rule authorizes Bar Counsel to conduct a limited investigation to determine the nature of a complaint and whether it can be resolved via non-disciplinary means. Upon concluding the limited investigation, bar counsel may dismiss or resolve the complaint, refer the complaint for non-disciplinary dispute resolution, or refer the complaint to disciplinary counsel for an investigation.

There are exceptions to the rule. Bar Counsel does not screen notices that a trust account has been overdrawn. Overdraft notices are automatically referred to Disciplinary Counsel for investigation. In addition, Disciplinary Counsel has the authority to open an investigation into any conduct that comes to her attention. Finally, Bar Counsel is prohibited from screening a complaint in which Bar Counsel has a conflict of interest.
Of the 125 new files opened in FY 20, Bar Counsel screened 99. The 26 that Bar Counsel did not screen:

OTHER

In FY 2020, Bar Counsel:

- Worked with the PRB to recommend that the Court amend Administrative Order 9 to create a Bar Assistance Program that would be administered by Bar Counsel.
- Served on the National Organization of Bar Counsel’s ad hoc Wellness Committee.
- Served as the Chair of the Vermont Bar Association’s Pro Bono Committee.
- Served on the Vermont Bar Association’s COVID-19 Committee. The Committee’s focus is on providing lawyers with information and resources related to the phased relaxation of the Court’s Judicial Emergency Order and the Governor’s “Stay Home/Safe” order.
• Participated in a series of seminars that will continue into FY 2021 and that focus on re-regulating the practice of law. Associate Justice Cohen is also participating in the program that is presented by the Institute for the Advancement of the American Legal System and its Unlocking Legal Regulation Project. The project focuses on whether to (1) repeal the prohibition on referral fees; (2) repeal the prohibition on non-lawyer ownership of law firms; and, (3) authorize non-lawyer to provide services that, currently, only lawyers are allowed to provide.

• Served as an acting judge in Chittenden Small Claims Court.

Disciplinary Counsel

INTRODUCTION

Disciplinary counsel administers the disciplinary side of the Professional Responsibility Program, pursuant to A.O. 9, Rule 3(B)(2). The office of disciplinary counsel is staffed by one full-time attorney and one part-time administrative assistant. Occasionally, disciplinary counsel utilizes additional contract resources, such as an investigator, certified public accountant and contract Special Appointed Disciplinary Counsel.

Disciplinary counsel’s core function is to investigate, charge, and litigate disciplinary complaints and disability matters from the stage of an initial complaint up to and including appeals before the Vermont Supreme Court. Numerical statistics do not necessarily provide an accurate snapshot of resource allocation or enforcement priorities in a given year in the office of disciplinary counsel. One primary reason for this is that a single investigation may take anywhere from a few hours by a single attorney to several months of work with the invaluable help of contract investigative support. The length of time a matter takes to investigate may not necessarily correlate to whether or not a lawyer is ultimately charged with a violation of the Rules of Professional Conduct.

INVESTIGATION

Complaints come to disciplinary counsel for investigation in three main ways. The majority are written complaints received by the program, which are screened by bar counsel and referred to disciplinary counsel for investigation. Disciplinary counsel also receives and investigates all automated notices from approved financial institutions of any overdrafts in attorney trust (IOLTA) accounts. Finally, disciplinary counsel may open an investigation on any other matter that comes to her attention which, if true, might constitute a violation of the Rules of Professional Conduct.

When a complaint requires investigation, disciplinary counsel will generally first request a written response from the attorney under investigation. Disciplinary counsel then reviews the written response and conducts whatever additional investigation is appropriate. In the vast majority of investigations, disciplinary counsel performs an in-person interview of the lawyer under investigation, ordinarily at that lawyer’s location of practice.

A portion of matters are investigated but no charge or disability proceeding results from the investigation. Some matters may be referred to non-disciplinary resolution and some are closed out without further action. In the vast majority of cases, complainants and respondents are interviewed as part of the investigative process. In all instances, complainants and respondents are notified in writing of the disposition of the matter with a brief explanation.

In the final quarter of FY20, in-person interviews and investigative activities were moderately impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic. The Judicial branch already had in place appropriate technology resources to allow disciplinary counsel to continue to advance the disciplinary docket. Even so, in accordance with CDC health guidelines and the Judiciary’s A.O. 49 adjustments, in-person interviews shifted to secure, nonpublic videoconferencing platforms during the last quarter of FY20, which changed the nature of investigation-related work and required some adaptation. A secondary impact upon the pace of investigative work resulted from respondents requiring time to adjust their work practices and technology access. As a result, many respondents requested and were granted lengthy extensions in responding to disciplinary counsel’s requests for investigative material in the last quarter of FY20.

a. Referrals to Non-Disciplinary Resolution

   Upon concluding an investigation, and as an alternative to commencing formal disciplinary or disability proceedings, disciplinary counsel may refer cases for non-disciplinary resolution. In FY20, four cases were referred to bar counsel for assignment to an Assistance Panel. None were referred to dispute resolution.

b. Dismissals

   Disciplinary counsel investigated and dismissed 24 complaints in FY20. The reasons for the dismissals usually relate to inability to prove a specific rule violation by clear and convincing evidence or other considerations such as enforcement priorities or development of the law in the area of lawyer discipline.

c. Investigative Docket Status

   FY20 opened with 11 formal investigations pending. During the fiscal year, an additional 39 files were opened for investigation. At the close of the fiscal year, there were 18 investigations pending.

LITIGATION

When disciplinary counsel charges a lawyer, the case begins by filing either in the Supreme Court or with the program administrator for assignment to a hearing panel, depending on the type of action. Matters assigned to a hearing panel are subject to direct appeal to the Supreme Court. Procedure in lawyer discipline matters is governed by A.O. 9. Proceedings are neither civil nor criminal. Violations must be proved by clear and convincing evidence.

Supreme Court Original Jurisdiction Matters

Several types of lawyer discipline matters begin by original jurisdiction in the Supreme Court. These categories are set out below.
a. Consent to Disbarment under A.O. 9, Rule 19
In cases where an attorney consents to disbarment under A.O. 9, Rule 19, disciplinary counsel sends documentation to the Board for review, and the Board makes a recommendation to the Supreme Court. The Court then issues a decision. In FY20, there were no consents to disbarment.

b. Petitions for Reciprocal Discipline under A.O. 9, Rule 20
Vermont-licensed attorneys who are disciplined in other jurisdictions are subject to reciprocal discipline in Vermont. A.O. 9 requires that disciplinary counsel file notice of any discipline of a Vermont attorney. The Court then generally provides opportunity for briefing on whether identical discipline should be imposed. In FY20, disciplinary counsel received two notices of Vermont-licensed attorneys disciplined in other jurisdictions and accordingly filed two petitions for reciprocal discipline with the Supreme Court. In each instance identical discipline was reciprocally imposed.

c. Petitions for Interim Suspension under A.O. 9, Rule 18
Upon the receipt of sufficient evidence showing that an attorney has either committed a violation of the ethics rules or is under a disability as set forth in Rule 21.A. and presently poses a substantial threat of serious harm to the public, disciplinary counsel is required to transmit the evidence to the Supreme Court, along with a proposed order for the interim suspension of the attorney’s license to practice law. In FY20, disciplinary counsel filed one petition for interim suspension, which was granted.

d. Trustee proceedings under A.O. 9, Rule 24
The Court or the Civil Division in the county where a lawyer is located may appoint a lawyer to act as a trustee of a deceased, suspended or disabled lawyer’s practice to inventory files and to protect the interests of the lawyer’s clients. In FY20, one trustee was appointed to an attorney who was found to have violated the terms of her probation.

e. Disability Proceedings under A.O. 9, Rule 21 Disciplinary counsel did not file any new disability cases in FY20.

f. Reinstatement Petitions under A.O. 9, Rule 22
There was one reinstatement petition was filed and granted in FY20.

Hearing Panel Matters
All other types of lawyer discipline and disability matters begin by filing with the program administrator and assignment to hearing panels.

Before a case is charged publicly by petition of misconduct, disciplinary counsel must file a nonpublic request for finding of probable cause. One hearing panel serves as the probable cause panel for a term of one year. At the beginning of FY20 one Probable Cause Request was pending. Three additional requests for finding of probable cause were filed. Probable cause was found in all four matters.
b. Petitions of Misconduct, Stipulations, and Hearings

Disciplinary counsel may charge a case by filing either a petition of misconduct or a stipulation of facts. The matter is assigned to a hearing panel by rotation, and the panel may take evidence on violations, sanction, or both. Charges, hearing notices, and pleadings are posted to the Board’s webpage under the tab Pending Public Disciplinary Matters.

In FY20, disciplinary counsel charged one cases (involving two matters) by petition of misconduct and one case (involving one matter) by stipulation of facts.

Three merits hearings were held in locations around the state. Hearings are open to the public and are usually held in courthouses. On March 24, 2020, the Supreme Court issued an emergency order suspending evidentiary hearings in PRB matters as a result of the pandemic and the suspension remained in effect at the close of the FY20. (A.O. 49, ¶ 15(d)(ii). Of the three new cases filed in FY20, two cases remained pending before hearing panels into the next fiscal year.

c. Hearing Panel Decisions

During FY20, hearing panels issued seven decisions involving twelve matters. PRB Decision Nos. 225a, 226, 227, 228, 229, 231 and 233. PRB Decision No. 229 (involving three matters) was later vacated by the Supreme Court. All decisions are posted to the webpage. If no appeal is taken, the decisions become final.

d. Appeals

When a Hearing Panel issues a decision, either party may appeal that decision to the Supreme Court. The Court may also, upon its own motion, order review of the Hearing Panel’s decision whether or not either party appeals. Of the hearing panel decisions issued in FY20, one appeal was filed, In re Robert Bowen, PRB Decision No. 233 by the respondent. The Court ordered a review upon its own motion for two cases. In In re Sigismund Wysolmerski, PRB Decision No. 226, the Court changed the sanction of twelve-month suspension to disbarment by its decision 2020 VT 54. In In re Jasdeep Pannu, PRB Decision No. 229, the Court vacated and dismissed the sanction of nine-month suspension in light of the respondent’s death during the time the appeal was pending. The Court also issued its opinion from a FY19 review in In re Stacey Adamski, 2020 VT 7, in which it changed the sanction of public reprimand from PRB Decision No. 221 to a fifteen-day suspension.

TRAINING

In FY20, Disciplinary Counsel attended three days of training provided by the National Organization of Bar Counsel.

PROBATION

Under A.O. 9, a hearing panel may order probation terms in connection with another sanction imposed for violations of the Rules of Professional Conduct. Disciplinary counsel is responsible for monitoring these attorneys. As FY20 opened, disciplinary counsel was monitoring three attorneys on disciplinary probation. No additional attorneys were placed on probation by a hearing panel in FY20. In December 2019, a Hearing Panel ruled that one attorney had violated the conditions of her probation and suspended the Attorney for six months from the date of the decision. At the close of the fiscal year, disciplinary counsel was monitoring two attorneys on probation.

COMPLIANCE WITH THE TRUST ACCOUNT RULES

In FY20, upon receiving notification from a bank that an attorney had an overdraft in the attorney’s trust account, disciplinary counsel opened 12 IOLTA overdraft related cases. Three additional cases were opened after an attorney self-reported a violation. All 15 cases were investigated.

APPROVED FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

Rule 1.15B(a)(1) of the Vermont Rules of Professional Conduct requires lawyers to maintain their trust accounts only in financial institutions approved by the Professional Responsibility Board. Disciplinary counsel oversees the written agreements with all approved financial institutions on an annual basis, whereby the institutions agree to the notice and other requirements set forth in the rules. The current list of Approved Financial Institutions is updated as needed.

CONTRACT CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

Disciplinary counsel assigns trust account compliance exams to contract CPAs. The attorneys who are examined are generally selected at random. The CPAs are also assigned to conduct compliance exams when need becomes apparent as part of a disciplinary or disability investigation, and they consult with disciplinary counsel on an ongoing basis. For each exam, the CPA examines the lawyer’s records, conducts inquiry, and produces a written report analyzing compliance with trust accounting rules. In FY20, existing contracts for two Certified Public Accountants were renewed.

CONTRACT INVESTIGATORS

From time to time, disciplinary investigations arise in which disciplinary counsel requires contract investigator services. In FY20, existing contracts for investigative services were renewed.

OTHER TASKS

A.O. 9, Rule 3(B)(2) provides that disciplinary counsel shall confer periodically with the Board to review operations and perform other assigned tasks. In FY18, at the request of the Board, disciplinary counsel began the process of revising the Hearing Panel Manual. This project is still ongoing.

Conclusion

The Professional Responsibility Program continued to administer the lawyer discipline program and to assist attorneys and the public to maintain and promote the highest standards of professional responsibility.

All participants in the Professional Responsibility Program are pleased to be of service to the Supreme Court, to the legal profession, and to the public. The Board acknowledges with gratitude the work of the staff and the many volunteers serving on Hearing and Assistance Panels and as Conflict Counsel, who have contributed significantly to the overall success of the Program.

We continue to provide an annual education and training opportunity for all participants in our program including Board members, Hearing Panel members, Assistance Panel members, Conflict Counsel and staff.

The Board would like to recognize and thank the following attorneys who served as special counsel, including:

- Edward Adrian
- Hon. Brian Burgess
- Samantha Lednicky
- Michelle Kainen
- Daniel McCabe
- Renee Mobbs
- Navah Spero
- Andy Strauss
