NOTICE

You have just been issued a CITATION to appear in COURT. This court appearance is called a PRELIMINARY HEARING. This notice tells you what to expect at the preliminary hearing and what you can do between now and then to prepare for it.

A copy of petition & affidavit is available at the State's Attorney's office for all persons required to receive notice, at least 5 business days prior to the preliminary hearing date. The PETITION has information about the delinquent act as charged. The AFFIDAVIT is the police officer's or other person's statement of what happened.

The State's Attorney may refer this matter to the Diversion Program. Diversion is an alternative to court.

For Youthful Offender cases only: You will receive information regarding an assessment. If you fail to participate within the time frame specified, your opportunity to be considered as a Youthful Offender may be denied.

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW BEFORE YOU GET TO THE COURTHOUSE:

- You may want to speak to a lawyer so that you will understand what to expect.
- If you cannot afford a private lawyer, you can apply for the services of a public defender at the courthouse.
- Your parent, guardian or custodian must come to court with you if you are under the age of 18.

WHAT TO EXPECT WHEN YOU GET TO THE COURTHOUSE

- Your parent, guardian or custodian must come to court with you, if you are under the age of 18.
- You are entitled to have a lawyer at the hearing.
- If you have your own lawyer, make sure that he or she goes to court with you.
- If you do not have your own lawyer, a public defender will be in court and will speak with you before the preliminary hearing.
- If your parent or guardian cannot afford a lawyer, the court will appoint one for you.
- At your hearing, the judge will explain your rights to you. The judge will ask you if you want to ADMIT or DENY the charge.
- The judge may set certain restrictions on you (such as curfew) while the case is pending. (These are called CONDITIONS OF RELEASE.)

NOTE: ALL HEARINGS ARE CONFIDENTIAL AND CLOSED TO THE PUBLIC. IT IS UNLAWFUL TO GIVE ANY PUBLICITY TO THESE PROCEEDINGS.
