Notice of Rights: Plaintiff and Defendant both have the right to a hearing on the alleged violation. Plaintiff carries the burden of proof by clear and convincing evidence. If the burden is satisfied, then Plaintiff is entitled to judgment in its favor. If the burden is not satisfied, then Defendant is entitled to judgment without any penalties. All judgments based on evidence presented at a hearing are appealable. Both Plaintiff and Defendant have the right to appeal.

Notice of Waivers: By entering this agreement, both parties waive: (1) the right to hearing; and (2) the right to appeal.

Notice to Defendant to Pay Penalty: If a monetary penalty is assessed against you, you must pay the penalty within 30 days to avoid having an additional $30.00 fee added to the judgment amount. 4 V.S.A. § 1109.

I knowingly and voluntarily enter this plea agreement and request the court to impose the terms shown above.
