Sorry, Merrick, my message was unclear. My question is: Whether the panel will issue an order containing the deadlines for the parties' proposed findings that will include time for the parties to order and receive the transcript that they order separately. In other words, will the transcript preparation time be added to the 30-day deadline for the parties to file their proposed findings.

Thanks.

Merrick - When do you anticipate the panel's instructions concerning the schedule for post-hearing filings will be posted? I am assuming that the 30 days for the parties to file their post-hearing proposed findings will begin when we receive the transcript. But I'll confirm that as soon as it's posted.

Thank you.
