Theodore Kennedy, Esq., Respondent

STIPULATED MOTION TO AMEND SCHEDULING ORDER

Disciplinary Counsel, Ian Carleton hereby moves, with Respondent's consent, to revise the discovery schedule as set forth in the enclosed proposed Amended Scheduling Order. Good cause exists for these amendments because the parties have been engaged in extensive, and we believe productive, settlement negotiations that delayed the onset of discovery. While no settlement was reached, the parties believe this was time well spent as the parties now have a clearer understanding of each others' respective positions, which have narrowed. The proposed amendments will allow for orderly discovery and sufficient time to consider returning to settlement talks along the way. As noted above, Respondent has been contacted about this motion and consents to it.

Wherefore, the Panel should grant this Motion and amend the discovery schedule as set forth in the attached Amended Scheduling Order.

Dated at Burlington, Vermont this 3rd day of November, 2022.
