In re: Daniel W. Ewald
PRB File No. 013-2023

ORDER

The parties in the above-referenced matter shall cooperate to jointly file a proposed scheduling order setting forth, at minimum, deadlines for the parties to:

1. Exchange the names and addresses of all persons having knowledge of relevant facts and/or of witnesses;
2. Serve requests for production of documents and evidence;
3. Disclose expert witnesses;
4. Disclose rebuttal expert witnesses;
5. Take depositions;
6. Complete discovery, including discovery-related motions;
7. File motions to amend the petition of misconduct;
8. File objections to the hearing panel conducting the merits hearing remotely by video conferencing;
9. File pre-hearing motions, including motions in limine; and
10. File a witness list identifying the witnesses the party anticipates calling to testify at the merits hearing, together with a brief summary of each witness's anticipated testimony and an estimate of the amount of time needed for direct examination, and an exhibit list identifying the exhibits the party anticipates presenting at the merits hearing, together with a representation as to whether or not the opposing party stipulates to each exhibit's authenticity or admissibility or both.

To assist with scheduling, the parties shall also identify the date by which this matter will be ready for a merits hearing and provide an estimate of the amount of time needed for the hearing in the proposed scheduling order.

To the extent the parties cannot agree on a date, they may so state and explain their respective positions in the proposed scheduling order.

The parties shall file the proposed scheduling order no later than December 15, 2023.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated November 16, 2023.
