

STATE OF VERMONT
VERMONT SUPREME COURT
NOVEMBER TERM, 2020

Order Promulgating Amendments to Administrative Order No. 9, Permanent Rules Governing Establishment and Operation of the Professional Responsibility Program

Pursuant to the Vermont Constitution, Chapter II, § 30, it is hereby ordered:

1. That Administrative Order No. 9, be amended as follows (new matter underlined; deleted matter struck through):

Purpose

The Professional Responsibility Program is established to provide a comprehensive system of regulation of the legal profession. Its objectives are: ~~(1) to resolve complaints against attorneys through fair and prompt dispute resolution procedures; (2) to investigate and discipline attorney misconduct; and (3) to assist attorneys and the public by providing education, advice, referrals, and other information designed to maintain and enhance the standards of professional responsibility.~~

(1) to assist attorneys and the public by providing education, guidance, referrals, and other information designed to achieve, maintain, and enhance professional competence and professional responsibility;

(2) to resolve disciplinary complaints against attorneys through fair and prompt dispute resolution procedures; and

(3) to investigate and discipline attorney misconduct.

Reporter's Notes—2021 Amendment

The changes are not substantive. The Purpose is reorganized so that former paragraph (3) is now (1). For clarity, new paragraph (1) is amended to add “achieve.”

Vermont's Professional Responsibility Program has long focused on prevention and education as much as on disciplinary prosecution. Assisting attorneys to achieve professional competence is as critical to an effective system of attorney regulation as investigating and prosecuting violations of the Rules of Professional Conduct. Proactive regulation serves to protect the public and instill confidence in the profession while promoting professionalism and civility.

I. Structure and Scope

Rule 1. The Professional Responsibility Board

Responsibility for, and overall supervision of, the program shall be vested in the Professional Responsibility Board (hereafter “Board”).

* * * * *

E. Powers and Duties. The Board shall oversee the program, and implements, coordinates, and periodically reviews its policies and goals. Its powers and duties shall include the following:

* * * * *

(b) efficient coordination of the program’s Bar Assistance Program educational, dispute resolution, and disciplinary functions;

* * * * *

Reporter’s Notes—2021 Amendment

Rule 1.E(1)(b) is amended to reflect that overall supervision of the Bar Assistance Program falls within the purview of the Professional Responsibility Board’s powers and duties. See Rule 4. The word “educational” is deleted and replaced with “Bar Assistance Program,” which encompasses education as well as other types of lawyer assistance.

Rule 2. Hearing Panels

~~A. Appointment and Membership. The chair of the Board shall appoint standing hearing panels as may be required. Each hearing panel shall consist of two members of the bar of this state and one public member. ~~D. Abstention of Hearing Panel Members. A hearing panel member shall disqualify himself or herself from taking part in any proceeding in which a judge, similarly situated, would be required to do so under the Vermont Code of Judicial Conduct. The chair of the hearing panel shall rule on any motion to disqualify. Any appeal of that decision will be decided by the chair of the Board, whose decision is final.~~

~~(2) Disciplinary Council shall administer the disciplinary program; investigate and litigate all disciplinary and disability matters; and select and recommend for appointment investigative staff pursuant to Administrative Order 3. Any terms or conditions shall be stated in writing, and may include, but shall not be limited to, participation in law office management training, continuing legal education, psychological counseling, substance abuse programs, and referral to fee arbitration. The panel may transfer any matter to disciplinary counsel which, in its view, is more appropriate for disciplinary proceedings.~~

~~(2) Upon the imposition of conditions, the complaint may be conditionally closed. Upon motion of the attorney and proof of successful completion of any terms or conditions, the complaint will be dismissed.~~

Rule 5 3. Jurisdiction

* * * * *

Reporter’s Notes—2021 Amendment

Former Rule 5 is renumbered Rule 3. There is no substantive change in the Professional Responsibility Program’s jurisdiction.

II. The Bar Assistance Program

Rule 4. Establishment and Purpose

The Bar Assistance Program is established within the Professional Responsibility Program. The Bar Assistance Program will assist lawyers to achieve, maintain, and enhance professional competence and professional responsibility by:

A. providing a forum for the nondisciplinary resolution of disputes involving lawyers, including the nondisciplinary resolution of professional conduct complaints filed against lawyers;

B. responding to inquiries regarding professional competence, professional responsibility, legal ethics, law practice management, and behavioral health issues that impact the practice of law;

C. developing programs related to professional competence, professional responsibility, legal ethics, law practice management, and behavioral health issues that impact the practice of law;

D. developing programs that promote attorney wellness and educate on issues related to the signs, symptoms, causes, and prevention of behavioral health issues that affect professional competence and impact the practice of law; and

E. assisting impaired judges and lawyers.

Reporter's Notes—2021 Amendment

Former Rule 4 is deleted in its entirety. Rule 7 now governs the Assistance Panel process.

New Rule 4 sets out the purposes of the Bar Assistance Program, which expands on services previously provided by the Professional Responsibility Program.

Competent representation is a professional responsibility. Lawyers suffer from behavioral health issues at staggering rates. In 2017, the National Task Force on Lawyer Well-Being issued The Path to Lawyer Well-Being: Practical Recommendations for Positive Change, <https://lawyerwellbeing.net/wp-content/uploads/2017/11/Lawyer-Wellbeing-Report.pdf> [<https://perma.cc/X43F-C5PT>]. In it, the Task Force noted:

Sadly, our profession is falling short when it comes to well-being. The two studies referenced above reveal that too many lawyers and law students experience chronic stress and high rates of depression and substance abuse. These findings are incompatible with a sustainable legal profession, and they raise troubling implications for many lawyers' basic competence.

In response, the Vermont Supreme Court committed to review its approach to attorney health, wellness, and competence. The review included forming the Vermont Commission on the Well-Being of the Legal Profession. In creating the Commission, the Court acknowledged:

- that lawyers deal with behavioral health issues at significant rates; and
- that the well-being of lawyers and judges is a critical component of access to justice.

In 2018, the Vermont Commission on the Well-Being of the Legal Profession issued its State Action Plan, <https://www.vtbar.org/UserFiles/files/For%20Attorneys/VT%20Commissi> on%20on%20the%20Well-Being%20of%20the%20Legal%20Profession/CWBLP%20State%20Action%20Plan%20-%20Finalwithedits132019.pdf [https://perma.cc/CS5L-5TUB]. The Court acknowledges many aspects of the State Action Plan, including its statement that the “profession has a duty to deliver competent legal and judicial services that will uphold the integrity of the justice system.” Related, in 2019, the Court amended Vermont Rule of Professional Conduct 1.1 to stress that a lawyer’s mental, emotional, and physical well-being is an aspect of competence. See V.R.Pr.C. 1.1 cmt. [9].

The public and profession are best served by proactive assistance to lawyers and judges. Therefore, the Court establishes the Bar Assistance Program. The program will continue to provide guidance and educational programs on “traditional” legal ethics and professional responsibility. In addition, the bar assistance program will assist by:

- developing programs to educate judges, lawyers, legal professionals, law students, and the public on issues related to professional competence, professional responsibility, legal ethics, law practice management, and behavioral health issues that impact the practice of law;
- developing programs that promote lawyer wellness and educate judges, lawyers, legal professionals, and law students on issues related to the signs, symptoms, causes, and prevention of behavioral health issues that affect professional competence and impact the practice of law; and
- helping impaired lawyers and judges to begin and continue recovery.

The Court and Board will continue to work closely with stakeholders such as the Vermont Bar Association, Vermont Law School, and the state’s legal employers to assess areas in which partnerships might be formed to make aspects of the Bar Assistance Program available to law students and lawyers’ nonlawyer assistants, employees, and staff members as appropriate.

Rule 5. Bar Counsel

Bar Counsel will:

A. Administer the Bar Assistance Program;

B. Respond to inquiries from judges, lawyers, legal professionals, law students, and the public regarding the Rules of Professional Conduct, professionalism and professional responsibility, legal ethics, law practice management, and behavioral health issues that impact a lawyer or judge’s professional competence;

C. Provide referrals, educational materials, guidance, and preventive advice and information to assist lawyers to achieve, maintain, and enhance professional competence and professional responsibility;

D. Develop and present programs related to the Rules of Professional Conduct, legal ethics, and a lawyer's professional competence and professional responsibilities;

E. Develop and present programs concerning lawyer wellness and on issues related to the signs, symptoms, causes, and prevention of behavioral health issues that affect lawyers' and judges' professional competence;

F. Develop mechanisms to help others to identify and intervene with impaired lawyers and judges;

G. Help lawyers and judges to secure expert counseling and treatment for behavioral health issues that affect professional competence, and maintain information on available treatment programs and services;

H. As necessary, assist lawyers and judges to coordinate aftercare services upon request, by order, or under contract that may include the following: assistance in structuring aftercare and discharge planning; assistance for entry into appropriate aftercare and professional peer-support meetings; and assistance in obtaining a primary care physician or local peer counselor;

I. As necessary, assist lawyers and judges to arrange monitoring services that may include the following: alcohol and drug-screening programs; tracking aftercare, peer-support, and twelve-step meeting attendance; providing documentation of compliance; and providing such reports concerning compliance by those participating in a monitoring program as may be required by the terms of that program;

J. Administer the nondisciplinary dispute-resolution program, including its assistance panels;

K. Work with the Board to recruit, coordinate, and train judges, lawyers, legal professionals, qualified health professionals, and members of the public to serve as assistance panel members;

L. As the Board's liaison, consult and coordinate with the ABA Commission on Lawyer Assistance Programs, the Vermont Bar Association, Vermont's local and county bar associations, Vermont Law School, the Judicial Conduct Board, the Board of Bar Examiners, the Character and Fitness Committee, the Board of Mandatory Continuing Legal Education, and other related organizations on matters related to professional responsibility, legal ethics, and law practice management; and

M. Any other task assigned by the Board within the scope of responsibility of Bar Counsel pursuant to these Rules.

Reporter's Notes—2021 Amendment

New Rule 5 assigns to Bar Counsel the responsibility for the day-to-day operation of the Bar Assistance Program. Bar Counsel continues to respond to ethics inquiries, administer the dispute-resolution program, and create and present continuing legal education seminars. Inquiries and educational programs will continue to be available to all. In addition, this rule vests Bar Counsel with new responsibilities to respond to and assist lawyers and judges facing issues that impact their mental, emotional, and physical well-being and their professional competence. This new role is consistent with the Court's long-standing position that Bar Counsel's role includes assisting lawyers to achieve and maintain high standards of professional responsibility. Notably, this new rule does not give Bar Counsel any role in the process by which formal disciplinary complaints are screened.

Rule 6. Inquiries and Referrals

Bar Counsel will respond to all inquiries and referrals.

A. Legal Ethics Inquiries. In response to an inquiry related to the Rules of Professional Conduct, law practice management, or a lawyer or judge's professionalism or professional responsibilities, Bar Counsel will provide the inquirer with:

(1) the appropriate referral, educational materials, or guidance; or

(2) the preventive advice and information necessary to assist lawyers and judges to achieve, maintain, and enhance professional competence and professional responsibility.

B. Informal Referrals and Compliance Agreements.

(1) Informal Referral. Upon receiving an informal referral, Bar Counsel may take any action authorized by Rule 5. Bar Counsel's response to an informal referral may include, but is not limited to:

(a) contacting the subject of the referral and providing guidance, advice, referrals, education material, or information as to the lawyer or judge's professional competence and professional responsibility;

(b) with the consent of the lawyer or judge who is the subject of the referral, referring the matter to an Assistance Panel to review pursuant to Rule 7;

(c) investigating, planning, and assisting in appropriately timed interventions with lawyers and judges in need of assistance;

(d) assisting lawyers and judges in need of assistance to secure the counseling, treatment, aftercare, and monitoring services referenced in Rule 5.G, 5.H, and 5.I; and

(e) entering into compliance agreements.

(2) Compliance Agreements.

(a) The lawyer or judge who is the subject of the referral may enter a compliance agreement with Bar Counsel.

(b) The failure to comply with a compliance agreement authorized by this rule will not be grounds for a referral to Disciplinary Counsel, the Judicial Conduct Board, or any other disciplinary person or organization.

(c) Demonstrated compliance with a compliance agreement authorized by this rule may be used to mitigate against any charge that the lawyer or judge violated the Rules of Professional Conduct or the Vermont Code of Judicial Conduct.

C. Formal Referrals for Behavioral Health Issues. Any matter referred to the Bar Assistance Program by Screening Counsel, Disciplinary Counsel, a hearing panel, the Character and Fitness Committee, or the Judicial Conduct Board in which the purpose of the referral is to address issues related a lawyer or judge’s behavioral health must be reviewed by an Assistance Panel pursuant to Rule 7.

D. Nonbehavioral Health Referrals. Disciplinary Counsel and Screening Counsel may refer matters to the Bar Assistance Program to address conduct that does not involve a behavioral health issue. Upon review, Bar Counsel may resolve the matter in a manner authorized by 6.A or refer the matter to an Assistance Panel for nondisciplinary resolution pursuant to Rule 7.

Reporter’s Notes—2021 Amendment

New Rule 6 sets out the process for Bar Counsel to respond to inquiries and referrals, including inquiries and referrals related to a lawyer’s or judge’s mental, emotional, and physical well-being. Paragraph A provides that Bar Counsel will respond to inquiries regarding the Rules of Professional Conduct, professionalism, and professional responsibility.

Paragraph B is intended to encourage lawyers and judges to seek assistance for themselves or others and to provide those who seek assistance for themselves with an incentive to comply with any assistance plan facilitated by Bar Counsel or the Bar Assistance Program. See Rule 7. The rule encompasses referrals from Screening Counsel and Disciplinary Counsel made pursuant to Rule 11.B or Rule 12.B. The rule describes compliance agreements and the limits on use of an attorney’s or judge’s compliance with an agreement.

Paragraph C reflects the understanding that matters appropriate for resolution by the new Bar Assistance Program might not come to light until after screening or an investigation by Disciplinary Counsel. Paragraph D refers to the traditional conduct complaints referred to an Assistance Panel prior to the creation of the Bar Assistance Program. The creation of the Bar Assistance Program does not preclude Disciplinary Counsel from continuing to make such referrals. In exercising the discretion conferred by paragraph D of this rule, Bar Counsel should be mindful of any specific recommendation made in Disciplinary Counsel's referral. The Court and Board support the notion that Assistance Panels play an important role in building and maintaining the public's confidence in the legal profession.

Rule 7. Assistance Panels

A. Appointment. The Chair of the Board appoints persons to serve as assistance panel members. The Chair of the Board fills any vacancies.

B. Terms. Terms are for two years. No member may serve more than 4 consecutive full or partial terms.

C. Membership and Quorum. Whenever a matter is referred to an Assistance Panel, Bar Counsel will appoint three members to serve and designate one member as the chair. A panel will include at least one member of the Board and at least one nonlawyer, who may be the same person. When a panel is constituted to address a behavioral health issue, at least one member should be a qualified health professional or have experience in dealing with issues related to behavioral health. Two members will constitute a quorum, and a panel will act only with the concurrence of two members.

D. Purpose. An assistance panel will attempt to facilitate the confidential and nondisciplinary resolution of any matter referred to it.

E. Powers and Duties. An assistance panel will:

(1) review all matters referred to it;

(2) unless there is good cause not to, meet with the lawyer or judge who is the subject of the referral and, if there is one, the complainant, either individually or at the same time, and attempt to facilitate a nondisciplinary resolution of the matter at issue;

(3) impose terms or conditions as an alternative to discipline;

(4) refer to Disciplinary Counsel any matter that the panel concludes is more appropriate for a disciplinary or disability investigation.

F. Terms and Conditions. Any terms or conditions will be in writing and delivered to the responding attorney. Terms and conditions may include, but will not be limited to:

(1) a referral to an appropriate health-care provider, counseling program, treatment program, or substance-abuse program;

(2) participation in aftercare services;

(3) continuing legal education;

(4) law practice management training;

(5) participation in the fee arbitration program offered by the Vermont Bar Association;

(6) mentoring;

(7) compliance monitoring.

G. Failure to Participate or Violation of Terms and Conditions. If a lawyer refuses to participate in the nondisciplinary resolution of the matter or fails to comply with any terms or conditions imposed by an assistance panel, the matter may be referred to Disciplinary Counsel for investigation.

H. Satisfaction of Terms and Conditions. A lawyer will provide an affidavit demonstrating compliance with any terms and conditions imposed by an assistance panel. Upon satisfaction of compliance, the assistance panel will close the matter. The resolution will be considered nondisciplinary.

I. Closure. Any matter fully resolved by an assistance panel will be closed. The resolution will be considered nondisciplinary.

J. Compensation and Expenses. Assistance panel members will be reimbursed for reasonable and necessary expense related to the performance of their duties in the same way Board members are reimbursed.

Reporter's Notes—2021 Amendment

Rule 7 continues the powers and duties of the assistance panels as set out in former Rule 4. The term limit of four terms is added. In addition, this new rule adds powers and duties that are consistent with the creation of the Bar Assistance Program.

Rule 8. Confidentiality

A. Information received by and disclosed to Bar Counsel and the Bar Assistance Program pertaining to the identity, diagnosis, prognosis, referral, or treatment of any lawyer or judge and records thereof, will be confidential and will not be disclosed except as expressly authorized by this rule.

B. Bar Counsel must not disclose information pertaining to any inquiry or to the identity, diagnosis, prognosis, referral, or treatment of any lawyer or judge, or records thereof, except as needed to carry out the purposes of the Bar Assistance Program, or as would be required or permitted by Rule 1.6 of the Vermont Rules of Professional Conduct.

C. Information and records otherwise confidential pursuant to paragraph A may be disclosed with the written consent of the lawyer or judge who is the subject of the information or record.

D. Information and records otherwise confidential pursuant to paragraph A may be disclosed, without the written consent of the lawyer or judge who is the subject of the record in the following circumstances:

(1) to medical personnel in a bona fide medical emergency;

(2) to conduct research or program evaluations, provided that the information or record disclosed does not identify any individual;

(3) to Disciplinary Counsel if the information or record shows that a lawyer's refusal to seek or participate in treatment indicates that the lawyer presently poses a substantial threat of serious harm to the public;

(4) to protect against an existing threat to life or serious bodily injury;

(5) in connection with any civil or licensing action against the lawyer or judge in which that person offers testimony or other evidence pertaining to the information or record; or

(6) by order of the Vermont Supreme Court. An application to disclose information must be made in writing filed with the Supreme Court, must demonstrate good cause for disclosing the information, and must be served on the lawyer or judge who is the subject of the information or record and on bar counsel. The respondent will have an opportunity to respond. The application, the response, and any related filings will be nonpublic unless and until the Court orders otherwise.

E. Bar Counsel, Board members, assistance panel members, and any staff or volunteer attorney within the Bar Assistance Program are exempt from the reporting requirements of Rule 8.3(a) or (b) of the Vermont Rules of Professional Conduct with respect to information acquired while acting pursuant to the rules governing the Bar Assistance Program.

F. Bar Counsel, Board members, assistance panel members, and any staff or volunteer attorney within the Bar Assistance Program will maintain the confidentiality required by this rule.

Reporter's Notes—2021 Amendment

New Rule 8 provides that all information related to the operation of the Bar Assistance Program is confidential and will not be disclosed unless authorized by the rule. Paragraphs B, C, and D provide instances where information may be disclosed. Paragraph E clarifies that lawyers working or volunteering in the program are not subject to the reporting requirement of V.R.Pr.C. 8.3(a) and (b) with respect to information acquired while working or volunteering in the Bar Assistance Program.

III. Disciplinary and Disability Matters

Rule 9. Disciplinary Counsel

Disciplinary Counsel administers the disciplinary program; investigates and litigates all disciplinary and disability matters; and selects and recommends for appointment investigative staff pursuant to Administrative Order 3. Disciplinary Counsel confers periodically with the Board to review operations and perform other assigned tasks.

Reporter's Notes—2021 Amendment

Part III is added and named Disciplinary and Disability Matters.

New Rule 9 is added and adopts similar language as former Rule 3.B(2).

Rule 6 10. Roster of Lawyers

Disciplinary counsel shall have access to all annual licensing statements.

~~Rule 9. Prevention and Education~~

~~Inquiries from attorneys regarding ethical issues or practice questions shall be referred to bar counsel, who may provide referrals, educational materials, and preventive advice and information to assist attorneys to achieve and maintain high standards of professional responsibility.~~

Rule 10 12. Screening Counsel and Filing and Review of Disciplinary Complaints

All ~~inquiries~~ complaints concerning attorney conduct ~~shall~~ must be directed to the Professional Responsibility Program.

A. Screening. ~~All complaints will be screened by bar counsel, who~~ Screening Counsel reviews all disciplinary complaints. Screening Counsel may contact the subject attorney and conduct other limited investigation necessary to determine the nature of the complaint and whether it can be resolved through nondisciplinary dispute resolution methods. ~~Bar counsel~~ Screening Counsel may attempt to resolve any complaint, of whatever nature, that does not appear to require formal intervention by ~~an assistance panel~~ the Bar Assistance Program or the disciplinary program.

B. Referral to ~~Assistance Panel~~ Alternate Program. ~~Bar counsel~~ Screening Counsel may refer any matter that does not appear to require prosecution and sanctions to the ~~assistance panel~~ (see Rule 4) Bar Assistance Program, Vermont Lawyer Assistance Program, the Vermont Bar Association Committee for the Arbitration of Fee Complaints or any other dispute resolution programs, including, but not limited to, ~~the Arbitration of Fee Complaints Committee of the Vermont Bar Association.~~

C. Formal Investigation. If the conduct which is the subject of the complaint appears to constitute misconduct that may require disciplinary sanctions, Screening Counsel must refer the matter to Disciplinary Counsel, who must ~~shall~~ investigate further to determine whether formal disciplinary proceedings should be pursued under Rule ~~14~~ 15.

Reporter's Notes—2021 Amendment

Former Rule 10 is renumbered Rule 12 and amended to remove Bar Counsel from the disciplinary screening process. To be effective, proactive regulation must be decoupled from the disciplinary process, including the screening of disciplinary complaints. Under Rule 2, the State Court Administrator will assign Screening Counsel to screen complaints. Rule 14.B is amended to reflect that complaints formerly referred to an assistance panel upon screening will, under the new rules, be referred to the Bar Assistance Program, which may result in the involvement of an assistance panel. C. Notice to the Courts. ~~Bar counsel~~ Disciplinary counsel shall promptly transmit a certified copy of the order of suspension, disbarment, reinstatement, transfer to or from interim suspension status and transfer to or from disability inactive status to all courts in this state. In addition, bar counsel may request the presiding judge of the superior court of the county in which a respondent, transferred to disability inactive status or otherwise unable to comply with the requirement of Rule ~~23~~ 27, maintained his or her practice to take such action under the provision of Rule ~~24~~ 28 as may be indicated in order to protect the interests of the respondent and respondent's clients.

D. Law Enforcement. Nothing in these rules shall be construed as prohibiting a member of the Professional Responsibility Program or an attorney participating in these proceedings from disclosing to appropriate law enforcement authorities evidence of a crime, even though that evidence may have arisen or been discovered in the course of the proceedings.

E. Publicly Available Decisions. In all cases decided by a hearing panel, the hearing panel shall prepare a record of decision which sets forth the factual, legal and discretionary basis of each decision. The decision shall not identify the parties or witnesses, unless the matter is one in which a disposition of reprimand, suspension or disbarment is imposed. Each decision shall be assigned a number and be available to the public. Where there has been a public disposition, the hearing panel's findings, conclusions and recommendations, and those of the Court, will be assigned a number and will constitute the record of decision.
