Standing Order

Paragraph 5 of Administrative Order 49 concerning remote hearings was deleted effective September 6, 2022. The Reporter's Notes regarding the change provided that remote participation in civil/environmental/probate/most family proceedings will be governed by existing VRCP 43.1, subject to any changes that might result from the work of the Special Advisory Committee on Remote Hearings. The Advisory Committee on Rules of Civil Procedure is currently considering amendments recommended by the Special Advisory Committee.

VRCP 43.1(c)(3) and (4) currently provide that in an order served on all parties, a court may allow or require remote participation by video and that a judge may preside from a remote location. Until further notice, any Notice of Hearing that requires or invites remote participation in a hearing in these divisions will serve as such an order.
