

ENTRY ORDER

SUPREME COURT DOCKET NO. 2018-075

SEPTEMBER TERM, 2018

In re Phyllis McCoy-Jacien, Esq. (Office of Disciplinary Counsel*)	} } } } }	APPEALED FROM: Original Jurisdiction PRB DOCKET NO. 2018-024
---	-----------------------	--

In the above-entitled cause, the Clerk will enter:

In a March 29, 2018 order, the Court suspended respondent’s license to practice law for nine months. See In re Phyllis McCoy Jacien, Esq., 2018 VT 35. Attorney Jess T. Schwidde was appointed as trustee “to inventory the files of the respondent, and to take action as seems indicated to protect the interests of . . . respondent’s clients.” Administrative Order 9, Rule 24. On September 7, 2018, the trustee filed a confidential final report outlining respondent’s refusal to cooperate in his efforts. The trustee asks to be relieved of his appointment given respondent’s behavior. We deny the trustee’s request to be relieved of his appointment at this juncture. We order respondent to comply with the trustee’s May 7, 2018 Demand Letter within fourteen days of the date of this order. This includes contacting the trustee to arrange “for the production, delivery and transfer” of the information specified in the demand letter. The trustee shall inform the Court if respondent has complied within fourteen days of the date of this order. Respondent’s failure to comply may result in the initiation of contempt proceedings and/or the imposition of other sanctions.
